DEPARTMENT OF STATE*Office of the Secretary

[Public Notice #2770]

Extension of the Restriction on the Use of United States Passports for Travel to, in or Through Iraq

On February 1, 1991, pursuant to the authority of 22 U.S.C. 211a and Executive Order 11295 (31 FR 10603), and in accordance with 22 CFR 51.73(a)(2) and (a)(3), all United States passports, with certain exceptions, were declared invalid for travel to, in, or through Iraq unless specifically validated for such travel. The restriction was originally imposed because armed hostilities then were taking place in Iraq and Kuwait, and because there was an imminent danger to the safety of United States travelers to Iraq. American citizens then residing in Iraq and American professional reporters and journalists on assignment there were exempted from the restriction on the ground that such exemptions were in the national interest. The restriction has been extended for additional one year periods since then, and was last extended on March 20, 1997.

Conditions in Iraq remain unsettled and hazardous. Despite the recently concluded U.N. Memorandum of Understanding with Iraq, tensions remain high. The government of Iraq continues to mount a virulent public campaign in which the United States is blamed for maintenance of U.N. sanctions. In southern Iraq, military repression of the Shia communities is severe, rendering conditions unsafe. There is a risk of conflict between Kurdish groups. Iraq's economy was severely damaged during the Gulf War and continues to be affected by the U.N. economic sanctions and the Government of Iraq's refusal to fully implement the U.N.'s Oil for Food program. Basic modern medical care and medicines may not be available to our citizens in case of emergency. U.S. citizens and other foreigners working inside Kuwait near the Iraqi borders have been detained by Iraqi authorities in the past and sentenced to lengthy jail terms for alleged illegal entry into the country. Although our interests are represented by the Embassy of Poland in Bagdad, its ability to obtain consular access to detained U.S. citizens and to perform emergency services is constrained by Iraqi unwillingness to cooperate. In light of these circumstances, I have determined that Iraq continues to be a country " * * * where there is imminent danger to the public health or physical safety of United States travelers".

Accordingly, United States passports shall continue to be invalid for use in travel to, in, or through Iraq unless specifically validated for such travel under the authority of the Secretary of State. The restriction shall not apply to American citizens residing in Iraq on February 1, 1991 who continue to reside there, or to American professional reporters or journalists on assignment there.

The Public Notice shall be effective upon publication in the Federal Register and shall expire at the end of
